Sleepy mr SLOTH

One day, Mr Sloth came to visit. He said:

I'm sleepy! I need a good branch for a bed!

Yawn!

Yawn!

Yawn!

I'm quite good at climbing.
I know how to swing.

But sleeping's my favourite,
favourite thing!

This branch looks lovely!
I think I'll sleep here.

And you? Don't you think
that's a splendid idea?

Oh no, Mr Sloth! A giraffe's eating there!

He might think you're lunch
and start nibbling your hair!

Ow!

This branch looks lovely!
I think I'll sleep here.

And you? Don't you think
that's a splendid idea?

Oh no, Mr Sloth! There's a beehive right there!

You'll never get sleep with those bees everywhere!

This branch looks lovely!
I think I'll sleep here.

And you? Don't you think

Oh no, Mr Sloth, that's a snake over there!

Not a branch! Poor old snake.
You gave him quite a scare.

This branch looks lovely!
I think I'll sleep here.

And you? Don't you think

Oh no, Mr Sloth! There's

You'll never get sleep with that noise in the air!

Haw-haw!

Haw!
Haw!

Try climb one more branch,
Mr Sloth! they all said.

And that branch was just the

The bird and the snake,
the giraffe and each bee

were happy to have Mr Sloth in their tree.
